HUNDREDS BURNED IN MOSCOW

JEROME TRIES TO PUT HUMMEL BACK IN TOMBS

He Has Him Rearrested, Claiming Release on Bail Was Irregular.

HIS BAIL IS DOUBLED.

Justice Woodward Saves Prisoner from Cell, but Fixes Bond at $20,000.

Abraham H. Hummel, the little criminal lawyer who is under sentence of one year in the penitentiary and a fine of $500, but who has been out on bail of $10,000, was rearrested to-day by Detective O'Brien, of the District-Attorney's office.

Almost immediately he was again released by order of Justice Woodward, of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, though, at the earnest application of Mr. Gans, of the District-Attorney's office, his bail was increased to $20,000.

By virtue of his arrest to-day the old bail bond of $10,000 was quashed. His former bondsman, Leo Schlesinger, became his surety on his new bond.

Mr. Jerome has been displeased with the procedure in Hummel's seeking liberty. Five hours after Hummel was found guilty and sent to a cell in the Tombs he was released under bond by order of Justice Woodward. His counsel had applied for a certificate of reasonable doubt, and Justice Woodward had issued an order to show cause, returnable next Saturday.

Mr. Jerome contended that until the Justice had actually decided Hummel was entitled to a certificate he should not be admitted to bail.

Mr. Jerome presented his views to Justice Woodward and to-day Assistant District-Attorney Gans, Hummel, his bondsman, and John B. Stanchfield, his counsel, gathered in Justice Woodward's chambers in Brooklyn.

After stating his view of the case Mr. Gans ordered Detective O'Brien to rearrest Hummel. The little lawyer looked pale and worried and stood by with an anxious expression on his face while lawyer Stanchfield and for a writ of habeas corpus. The release of the lawyer followed.

Arguments on the writ and on the application for a certificate of reasonable doubt will be heard by Justice Woodward on Saturday.

Philadelphia Jury Returns Negative Verdict in the Case.

(Special to The Evening World.) PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—The Coroner's jury in the case of Mrs. Margaret Todd, the aged New York woman whose dismembered body was found on the tracks of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad in this city, on the night of Oct. 21 last, this afternoon rendered an open verdict. Coroner Dugan's efforts to solve the mystery surrounding her death have therefore proven unavailing.

The verdict was worded: "Injuries received on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad in a manner unaccounted for by the jury."

Testimony was brought out before the Coroner indicating that Mrs. Todd's body had been placed on the railway tracks by some person or persons not known. It was also testified that she may have wandered off the tracks and was there struck by a freight train. For the past few months, it was also testified, Mrs. Todd had evidenced decided eccentricities.

"FIGHTING JOE" WHEELER MAY BE HEAD OF POLICE

Report that M'Adoo's Place Has Been Offered Hero of 2 Wars.

Mayor McClellan was to have returned from his Christmas vacation at Princeton to-day, but he remained in the New Jersey town and will not come back until to-morrow.

It is reported around the City Hall that he spent several hours in consultation with Gen. Joe Wheeler, and that he offered the position of Police Commissioner to that veteran of two wars.

Gen. Joe Wheeler, while aged, is alert and vigorous. He is a resident of New York, having made his home here since the close of the Spanish-American war. Should Gen. Wheeler accept, the Mayor will have but three vacant places on his slate.

The Mayor is undecided as to who shall succeed John T. Oakley as Commissioner of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity. Tremendous pressure has been brought to bear on the Mayor for him. His fate is probably undecided.

Tammany Commissioner. The Mayor is disposed to give the Park Commissioner's job to a Tammany District Leader, but few of the leaders shape up to his requirements. John Cogges has been suggested, but it is not known whether he would accept. Mr. Cogges is one of the few district leaders who have not clamored for a job.

The Bridge Commissioner will go to Brooklyn. W. C. Redfield and J. W. Stevenson lead for the place in the estimation of observers. The appointment of Mr. Stevenson would be greatly appreciated by Comptroller Grout.

Murphy has been entirely ignored by the Mayor in the making up of the slate and Mr. Murphy is more or less peevish. There has been no open rupture between the leader of Tammany and the Mayor, but one is expected.

Mayor McClellan, it is understood, has informed Murphy that inasmuch as the Mayor has been held responsible for all the mistakes of the last administration, the Mayor purposes to make his own mistakes during the next four years.

Has Strong Support.

The Mayor has the backing of the active element in Tammany Hall.

ANTI-ODELL MAN FOR SHARKEY'S JOB

Dady Sees the President, but Change in Naval Office Is Certain.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—President Roosevelt's active interest in the fight for the control of the machine in the State of New York is indicated by his determination to appoint an anti-Odell man as Naval Officer of the Port of New York to succeed Robert A. Sharkey, of Brooklyn. Sharkey is Dady's man, and Dady sticks by Odell in the Speakership fight.

That Sharkey is to go is practically admitted by Michael J. Dady, who came here to talk over the matter of his appointment with the President. The talk came off according to schedule, but the President said nothing to Dady about Sharkey.

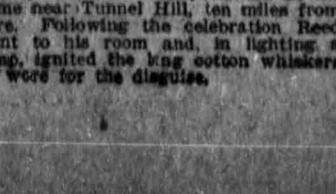

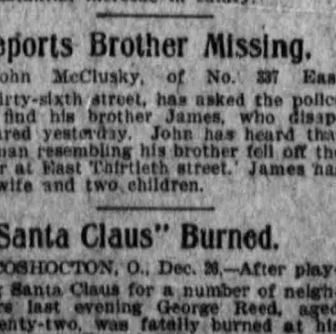

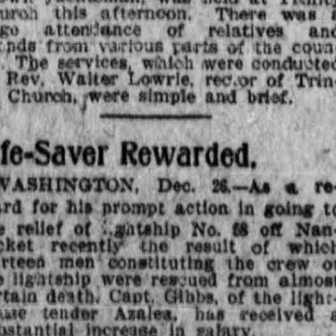

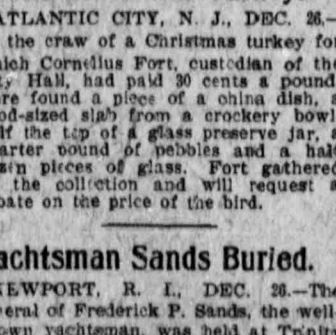

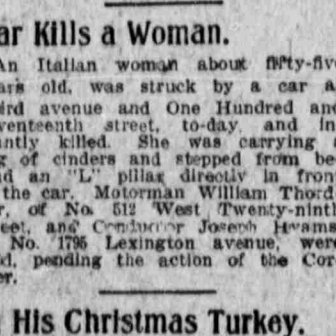

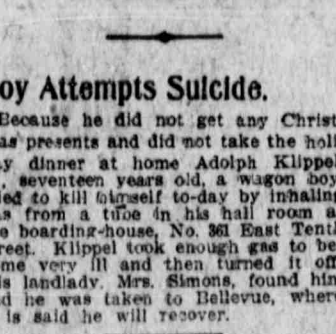

Dady, who has arrived for Federal office-holders in their State of New York to line up on the Odell side or on the side of Sharkey, Higgins and Mr. Wadsworth. Those who stick to Odell will lose their jobs as soon as the President can get around to them. The Odell leaders who have no further say in the appointment of men to places in the Federal Government. There is no doubt about the stand of the President on this point.

In other words the President is using the power of his office against Odell. He is in the New York State with all the energy of his virile nature and has assured Mr. Wadsworth, whom he summoned to Washington for a personal conference, that the programme of the anti-Odellites will go through. Odell's straight stream and attitude have pleased the President. His determination is to crush the Newburg boss so thoroughly that he will never have another chance to figure in politics in New York.

Canadian Judge Dismissed.

MONTREAL, QUE., Dec. 26.—Urie La Fontaine, police justice, has been dismissed from the position as Extraordinary Commissioner by the Dominion Government. La Fontaine issued writs of extradition in many celebrated cases, among them being the Gaynor-Greene case. It was stated when this decision was being heard that La Fontaine had incurred the enmity of powerful political friends of the law firm which represented the American contractors.

FAIR GROUNDS RESULTS. FAIR GROUNDS, NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 26.—The card to-day was well filled and the fields evenly matched. This gave the talent a pinch to square matters with the layers, who have had it all their own way the past week.

Several New York bookmakers will soon occupy stools at this track. The betting has taken on a decided brace owing to the better class of entries that have been racing here the past week.

The track was in good condition. FIRST RACE—Five furlongs. Starting, weights and jockeys. Betting, Str.
